

SUNY Oswego's Small Business Development Center to host "What business should I start?" seminar.

OSWEGO, New York - - October 9th, 2011 -- Have you ever considered opening your own business and have no idea which business to start? Or you have hundreds of ideas and don't know which ones to eliminate? SUNY Oswego's Office of Business and Community Relations (OBCR) and the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) will host a seminar based on the Rhonda Abrams best seller What Business Should I start? Seven steps to discovering the ideal business for you. The seminar will be held on Monday November 7th at 6:00pm-7:30 at the Pulaski Academy and Central School. The cost is $10.00 and pre-registration is required. Contact SUNY Oswego's Office of Business and Community Relations at (315) 312-3492 or contact us by email at obcr@oswego.edu to sign up. The class will be led by Chena Tucker, Business Programs Assistant at SUNY Oswego's SBDC. The seminar will consist of a presentation along with the exclusive E-Type test designed to uncover your true entrepreneurial personality and help you identify what potential businesses you should start.

"If you would like to open a small business or develop ways to improve your bottom line...you can do it, and we can help!

For more information about the resources available:

Contact the Office of Business and Community Relations at 315.312.3492

Or you can email us at obcr@oswego.edu